

BEFORE THE WASHINGTON STATE
EXECUTIVE ETHICS BOARD

In the Matter of: [REDACTED]

NO. 00-33

STIPULATION AND ORDER

I. STIPULATION

THIS STIPULATION is entered into under WAC 292-100-090 between [REDACTED] and the EXECUTIVE ETHICS BOARD ("Board") through Brian R. Malarky, Executive Director. The following findings, conclusions, and agreements will be binding upon the parties to this agreement, if the agreement is fully executed, and if accepted by the Washington State Executive Ethics Board, and not otherwise.

A. FACTS AND LAW

1. FACTS

a. The Executive Director to the Board filed the above referenced complaint on October 6, 2000, against [REDACTED] the Washington State Secretary of State, pursuant to a referral from the Public Disclosure Commission.

b. [REDACTED] is a statewide elected officer subject to the jurisdiction of the Board under RCW 42.52.360. [REDACTED] was first elected to office in 1980 and has served 5 terms.

c. Kelly Balcomb-Bartok is a freelance photographer, naturalist, and educator who resides in San Juan County. In addition, Mr. Balcomb-Bartok was a Democratic Party candidate for the office of San Juan County Commissioner, District 1. Mr. Balcomb-Bartok's name appeared on the September 19, 2000 primary ballot.

d. Darcie L. Nielsen is the San Juan County Commissioner for District 1. Ms. Nielsen's name appeared on the September 19, 2000 ballot as a Democratic Party candidate for the office of San Juan County Commissioner. Ms. Nielsen won the September 19, 2000 Democratic primary election.

STIPULATION AND ORDER

e. Pursuant to the State Constitution, [REDACTED] office publishes a statewide Voters Pamphlet, which includes information about statewide ballot initiatives and candidates for statewide public office in the general election. The Voters Pamphlet is the official election publication of the State and is widely respected by citizens and all branches of state government. In 1998, the legislature approved a statewide primary election Voters Pamphlet, which was jointly funded by the Secretary of State and the Washington State Supreme Court. The first statewide primary election Voters Pamphlet ("2000 Primary Pamphlet") was printed and distributed to voters in early September 2000.

f. The Secretary of State has executed 10-year agreements with most Washington counties to include information regarding candidates for local public office or local ballot initiatives in the statewide Voters Pamphlet. Most, but not all, counties carried forward their existing agreements so that they could include information in the 2000 Primary Pamphlet.

g. In 1995, [REDACTED] signed a 10-year agreement with San Juan County to provide a San Juan County section in the general election Voters Pamphlet. The agreement was negotiated by the Secretary of State, Elections Division. This agreement was carried forward for the purpose of including San Juan County in the 2000 Primary Pamphlet. Under the agreement the San Juan County Auditor provided all content for the San Juan County's section of the 2000 Primary Pamphlet and reimbursed the State a pro-rata share of the statewide pamphlet's production cost, including postage and fees. San Juan County paid $555.41 for the 2000 Primary Pamphlet.

h. The evidence indicates that Mr. Balcomb-Bartok initially discussed his intention to run for San County Commissioner with local friends and members of the community in April 2000.

i. [REDACTED] recalled that sometime in April, May, or June 2000 he agreed to endorse Mr. Balcomb-Bartok if he ran for County Commissioner or any other political office. [REDACTED] [REDACTED] noted that Mr. Balcomb-Bartok is a personal friend who he has known and worked with for many years.

j. Just prior to May 31, 2000, Shawn Merchant, Voter Services Manager in the Secretary of State's Office, talked to [REDACTED] about the cover for the 2000 Primary Pamphlet. Mr. Munro told Mr. Merchant that he wanted to use whales on the cover of the pamphlet and recommended that he contact Mr. Balcomb-Bartok for the photographs. [REDACTED] has always selected the cover topic for each Voters Pamphlet. Later that day, Mr. Balcomb-Bartok verbally agreed to provide a photograph for the cover at no charge to the state and provided sample photographs for review.

k. On July 13, 2000, Mr. Merchant asked Mr. Balcomb-Bartok for additional photographs to use as additional filler pages inside some editions of the 2000 Primary Pamphlet.

l. On July 15, 2000 Mr. Balcomb-Bartok filed a form C-1 with the Public Disclosure Commission indicating that he was a candidate for San Juan County Commissioner. All senior officials involved in production of the 2000 Primary Pamphlet asserted that they were unaware that Mr. Balcomb-Bartok was a candidate for public office or that he would appear in the 2000 Primary Pamphlet.

m. In early August 2000, the Secretary of State's 2000 Primary Pamphlet materials, including several pages of Mr. Balcomb-Bartok's photographs, were sent to Candy McDonald, an independent contractor who is the Voters Pamphlet composition coordinator. On August 21, 2000, San Juan County submitted their materials for the 2000 Primary Pamphlet. The San Juan County materials were sent directly to Ms. McDonald without being reviewed by the Secretary of State's Office. Ms. McDonald then arranged the pamphlet and sent it directly to the printer.

n. San Juan County's section of the statewide pamphlet was located on pages 44 through 51 in Edition 14 of the 2000 Primary Pamphlet. The cover and last page of all editions of the 2000 Primary Pamphlet included a color photograph of four orca whales made by Mr. Balcomb-Bartok. Cover photo credits, including Mr. Balcomb-Bartok's name and city, are provided in small type on page 2. Edition 14 of the 2000 Primary Pamphlet contained three additional orca whale photograph sheets located on pages 43, 52, and 53. Each photograph sheet included three additional orca whale photographs made by Mr. Balcomb-Bartok and a photo credit citation, printed in a slightly more prominent font than the page 2 credits. Mr. Balcomb-Bartok's candidate photograph and statement appeared on page 46 and Ms. Nielsen's photograph and candidate statement appeared on the page 47. While Ms. Nielsen's name appeared two times in Edition 14 of the 2000 Primary Pamphlet, Mr. Balcomb-Bartok's name appeared six times in the same publication, four of those appearances were in small print.

o. In early September 2000, Edition 14 of the 2000 Primary Pamphlet was printed and copies were mailed to 11,433 San Juan County households.

2. APPLICABLE LAW
