BEFORE THE WASHINGTON STATE
EXECUTIVE ETHICS BOARD

In the Matter of: NO. 02-53

[Redacted] Respondent.

STIPULATION AND ORDER

I. STIPULATION

THIS STIPULATION is entered into under WAC 292-100-090 between, [Redacted] Respondent, and the EXECUTIVE ETHICS BOARD (Board) through BRIAN R. MALARKY, Executive Director. The following stipulated facts, conclusions, and agreed order will be binding upon the parties if fully executed, and if accepted by the Board without modification(s), and will not be binding if rejected by the Board, or if the Respondent does not accept the Board’s proposed modification(s), if any, to the stipulation.

A. FACTS

1. On September 4, 2002 the State Auditor’s Office (SAO) referred the final report of Whistleblower Case No 02-071 to the Executive Ethics Board. The referral alleged that [Redacted] Respondent, may have violated RCW 42.52.160(1) by using his state computer to access the Internet and send personal e-mail containing inappropriate content to co-workers, friends, family and outside agencies. At the January 10, 2003 Board meeting, the Board issued an ethics complaint regarding the allegations contained in the SAO’s investigation report.

2. [Redacted] is a Social Worker 3 assigned to the Kent Regional Justice Center Court Unit, a Division of Children and Family Services (DCFS) unit of the Department of Social and Health Services (DSHS), and subject to the jurisdiction of the Washington State Executive Ethics Board under RCW 42.52.360.

3. During its investigation, the SAO reviewed copies of [Redacted] e-mail, Internet and computer folders. The SAO found that [Redacted] accessed a minimum of 63 websites on the Internet, some relating to sports, jokes, auctions, department stores, automobiles and movies.
4. The SAO also found that [REDACTED] accessed pictures of the Sonics basketball team, the Seahawks cheerleaders, automobiles, and saved pictures from a New Year's party. He also accessed adult-oriented material.

5. The SAO working papers contain copies of e-mail [REDACTED] sent to co-workers, friends, family and outside agencies containing inappropriate jokes and other inappropriate content.

6. During the SAO investigation, [REDACTED] admitted to surfing the Internet and subscribing to a website that sent him inspirational messages daily. He also admitted to accessing adult-oriented material.

7. In response to the SAO investigation, [REDACTED] indicated he would cancel the websites that he subscribed to and would have the information sent to his home computer.

8. On August 9, 2002, DSHS issued a Letter of Reprimand to [REDACTED] for his misuse of the Internet and e-mail. This letter will be removed from his personnel file in August 2003 if [REDACTED] commits no further violations of DSHS Administrative Policy 15.15 (Use of Electronic Messaging Systems and the Internet).

9. [REDACTED] understands that under RCW 42.52.480(1)(a) and (b), if the Board staff proves any or all of the alleged violations at a hearing, the Board may impose sanctions, including: (a) repayment of any damages that resulted from his conduct; and (b) a civil penalty of up to $5000, or the greater of three times the economic value of anything received or sought in violation of chapter 42.52 RCW, for each violation found. The Board may also order the payment of costs, including reasonable investigative costs, under RCW 42.52.480(1)(c).

B. APPLICABLE LAW

1. RCW 42.52.160(1) states:

   No state officer or state employee may employ or use any person, money or property under the officer’s or employee’s official control or direction, or in his or her official custody, for the private benefit or gain of the officer, employee, or another.

2. WAC 292-110-010 states that employees may make occasional but limited personal use of state resources such as electronic messaging systems and the Internet if the use conforms with ethical standards. Those standards include that the use is of little or no cost to the state, brief in duration and frequency, does not disrupt other state employees and does not obligate them to make a personal use of state resources.

3. DSHS Administrative Policy 15.15 prohibits agency staff from using state-provided electronic messaging systems and the Internet in a manner prohibited by WAC 292-110-010. The policy further prohibits staff from using the state-provided Internet access to participate in non-business related list servers or newsgroups and creating, posting, transmitting, connection to or voluntarily receiving obscene, pornographic, offensive, libelous, threatening or harassing material. Employees are not to create, forward or store electronic messages that do not pertain to the state’s business.

C. AGGRAVATING AND MITIGATING FACTORS

1. In determining the appropriateness of the civil penalty, Board staff reviewed criteria in WAC 292-120-030. In the case at hand: (1) the violations were continuing in nature (WAC 292-120-030(2)(a)); and (2) the violations significantly reduced the public respect for, and the confidence in, state government employees (WAC 292-120-030(2)).

2. It is a mitigating factor that [redacted] received a letter of reprimand that will remain in his personnel file for approximately one year, providing that no other violations occur.

D. RESOLUTION

1. [redacted] admits that he violated provisions of RCW 42.52.160 when he used his state computer to access websites relating to movies, sports, jokes, auctions, department stores, and automobiles. [redacted] further admits that this use exceed the de minimis standards under WAC 292-110-010(3) and violated DSHS Administrative Policy 15.15.

2. [redacted] admits that he violated provisions of RCW 42.52.160 when he accessed pictures of the Sonics basketball team, the Seahawks cheerleaders, automobiles, pictures from a party, and adult-oriented material. [redacted] further admits that this use exceed the de minimis standards under WAC 292-110-010(3) and violated DSHS Administrative Policy 15.15.
3. [Redacted] admits that he violated provisions of RCW 42.52.160 when he sent personal e-mail containing inappropriate content to co-workers, friends, family and outside agencies using his state computer. [Redacted] further admits that this use exceed the de minimis standards under WAC 292-110-010(3) and violated DSHS Administrative Policy 15.15.

4. Recognizing that he is personally responsible for his conduct, [Redacted] will pay a civil penalty pursuant to RCW 42.52.480(1)(b) in the amount of one thousand five hundred dollars ($1,500.00). The Board agrees to suspend five hundred dollars ($500.00) of the civil penalty on the condition that [Redacted] complies with all terms and conditions of this Stipulation and Order and commits no further violations of chapter 42.52 RCW.

5. The civil penalty in the amount of one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) is payable to the State of Washington, which will be remitted to the Executive Ethics Board in ten (10) equal installments of one hundred dollars ($100.00) with the first payment due on July 31, 2003, and the last day of each month thereafter. Failure to make timely payment will cause the entire amount of the civil penalty to become due and payable within ten (10) days of the missed payment.

6. [Redacted] will attend Board approved Ethics training within six months of approval of this Stipulation and Order by the Board.

II. CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. Pursuant to chapter 42.52 RCW, the Executive Ethics Board has jurisdiction over [Redacted] and over the subject matter of this complaint.

If the board rejects the stipulation or respondent does not agree to the board’s proposed modification to the stipulation, the normal process will continue. The proposed stipulation and information obtained during formal settlement discussion shall not be admitted into evidence at a subsequent public hearing.

III. RELEASE / EFFECT OF ORDER

1. If the Board accepts this Stipulation, the Board releases and discharges [redacted] from all further ethics proceedings under chapter 42.52 RCW for matters arising out of the facts contained in this complaint, subject to payment in full of the civil penalty owed in the amount of $1,000.00 and compliance with all other conditions of this Stipulation. [redacted] agrees to release and discharge the Board, its officers, agents, and employees from all claims, damages, and causes of action arising out of this complaint and this Stipulation and Order.

2. If this Stipulation is accepted, this Stipulation and Order does not purport to settle any other claims between [redacted] and the Washington State Executive Ethics Board, the State of Washington, or other third party, which may be filed in the future.
