BEFORE THE WASHINGTON STATE EXECUTIVE ETHICS BOARD

In the Matter of:

Jasmine Hansel,

EEB Case No. 2022-015

FINAL ORDER

Respondent

I. PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On April 20, 2022, the Executive Ethics Board (Board) received an agency referral alleging that Jasmine Hansel (Ms. Hansel), a former employee with the Employment Security Department (ESD), may have violated the Ethics in Public Service Act. The referral alleged that Ms. Hansel violated the Ethics in Public Service Act by using state resources for non-work related activities.

On September 9, 2022, The Board found reasonable cause that violation(s) of RCW 42.52 had been committed. On March 10, 2023, the Board entered an Order of Default. On March 13, 2023, Board staff provided Ms. Hansel with notice of the Board's Order of Default by regular and certified mail.

Pursuant to WAC 292-100-060(4) Ms. Hansel was allowed 10 days to request vacation of the Order of Default. Ms. Hansel has not moved to vacate the order entered on March 10, 2023.

II. FINDINGS OF FACT

1. According to the referral, when an ESD employee separates from the agency, ESD staff are responsible for reviewing the employee's email account in order to help the agency comply with records retention requirements. Upon Ms. Hansel's exit from ESD, her email account was reviewed, at which time several personal emails were discovered.

6
7	CONCLUSIONS OF LAW
8	1. The Board has jurisdiction to hear this matter pursuant to RCW 42.52.360(1),
9	which authorizes the Board to enforce the Ethics in Public Service Act, chapter 42.52 RCW,
10	with respect to employees in the executive branch of state government. The Board has
11	jurisdiction over Jasmine Hansel, whose actions occurred while she was a state employee.
12	Based on the evidence reviewed, Ms. Hansel has used state resources for her private benefit or
13	gain in violation of RCW 42.52.160. Ms. Ms. Hansel's activities do not meet the exceptions for
14	the use of state resources as permitted in WAC 292-110-010.
15	2. RCW 42.52.160(1) – Use of persons, money, or property for private gain, states:
16	No state officer or state employee may employ or use any person, money, or property under the officer's or employee's
17	official control or direction, or in his or her official custody, for
18	the private benefit or gain of the officer, employee, or another.
19	Under WAC 292-110-010 Use of state resources states, in part:
20	(3) Permitted personal use of state resources. This subsection applies to any use of state resources not included in subsection (2) of this section.
21	(a) A state officer or employee's use of state resources is de minimis only if each of the following conditions are met:
22	<ul><li>(i) There is little or no cost to the state;</li><li>(ii) Any use is brief;</li></ul>
23	<ul><li>(iii) Any use occurs infrequently;</li><li>(iv) The use does not interfere with the performance of any state officer's</li></ul>
24	or employee's official duties; (v) The use does not compromise the security or integrity of state
25	property, information systems, or software; (vi) The use is not for the purpose of conducting an outside business, in
26	furtherance of private employment, or to realize a private financial gain; and

1	(vii) The use is not for supporting, promoting the interests of, or soliciting for an outside organization or group.
2	3. The Board is authorized to impose sanctions for violations to the Ethics Act
3	pursuant to RCW 42.52.360.
4	4. In determining the appropriateness of the civil penalty, the criteria in WAC 292-
5	120-030 have been reviewed.
6	III. FINAL ORDER
7	Based on the foregoing:
8	IT IS HEREBY ORDERED Respondent Jasmine Hansel is liable for and shall pay a civil
9	penalty of four-thousand dollars ($4,000). The payment shall be made to the Executive Ethics
10	Board within forty-five (45) days of this Order.
11	Board within forty-five (43) days of this Order.

APPEAL RIGHTS

RECONSIDERATION OF FINAL ORDER – BOARD

Any party may ask the Executive Ethics Board to reconsider a Final Order. The request must be in writing and must include the specific grounds or reasons for the request. The request must be delivered to Board office within 10 days after the postmark date of this order.

The Board is deemed to have denied the request for reconsideration if, within 20 days from the date the request is filed, the Board does not either dispose of the petition or serve the parties with written notice specifying the date by which it will act on the petition. RCW 34.05.470.

The Respondent is not required to ask the Board to reconsider the Final Order before seeking judicial review by a superior court. RCW 34.05.470.

FURTHER APPEAL RIGHTS – SUPERIOR COURT

A Final Order issued by the Executive Ethics Board is subject to judicial review under the Administrative Procedure Act, chapter 34.05 RCW. See RCW 42.52.440. The procedures are provided in RCW 34.05.510 - .598.

The petition for judicial review must be filed with the superior court and served on the Board and any other parties within 30 days of the date that the Board serves this Final Order on the parties. RCW 34.05.542(2). Service is defined in RCW 34.05.542(4) as the date of mailing or personal service.

A petition for review must set forth:

(1) The name and mailing address of the petitioner;

(2) The name and mailing address of the petitioner's attorney, if any;

- (3) The name and mailing address of the agency whose action is at issue;
- (4) Identification of the agency action at issue, together with a duplicate copy, summary,
  - or brief description of the agency action;

9

1	(5) Identification of persons who were parties in any adjudicative proceedings that led to
2	the agency action;
3	(6) Facts to demonstrate that the petitioner is entitled to obtain judicial review;
4	(7) The petitioner's reasons for believing that relief should be granted; and
5	(8) A request for relief, specifying the type and extent of relief requested.
6	RCW 34.05.545.
7	ENFORCEMENT OF FINAL ORDERS
8	If there is no timely request for reconsideration, this is the Final Order of the Board. The
9	Respondent is legally obligated to pay any penalty assessed.
10	The Board will seek to enforce a Final Order in superior court and recover legal costs
11	and attorney's fees if the penalty remains unpaid and no petition for judicial review has been
12	timely filed under chapter 34.05 RCW. This action will be taken without further order by the
13	Board.
